Scope and content:

Vivienne Poy Papers consists of the entire records from the former Senator Vivienne Poy's Office, dated from 1997-2012. Chiefly paper files, the collection includes Poy's senatorial and community speech, correspondence, and subject files on Poy's activities, personal research on various subjects such as ethnicity Canada, women studies, and Chinese Canadian history. Poy Papers are mainly in word-processed format, with scattered manuscript note and holograph in correspondence. The collection also includes 200 photographs and a small number of media files with presentations, photographs, interviews and conference records.

Biographical Sketch:

Vivienne Poy, born May 15, 1941 in Hong Kong, was appointed to the Senate of Canada in 1998. Poy immigrated to Canada as a university student in 1959. She is the first Canadian senator of Asian ancestry. She graduated from St. Paul's Co-educational College, McGill University, Seneca College and the University of Toronto. For 14 years, Poy served as president of Vivienne Poy Mode, a fashion design company that she founded in 1981. She was selected as Chancellor of the University of Toronto in December 2002. Poy is the daughter of Richard Charles Lee, who is the son of famous businessman Hysan Lee in Hong Kong, and Esther Yewpick Lee and the sister-in-law of Adrienne Clarkson, who was Governor General of Canada from 1999 to 2005. Vivienne Poy's husband Dr. Neville Poy, a retired plastic surgeon, is Clarkson's brother.

Vivienne Poy is a sponsor of the Famous Five Monument in Calgary and on Parliament Hill. She also sponsored the Richard Charles Lee Canada-Hong Kong Library, the Chinese Cultural Centre of Greater Toronto, among several other initiatives. Upon her retirement from the senator's position in Sept. 2012, Poy donated the entire records from her office to the Richard Charles Lee Canada-Hong Kong Library for permanent preservation.

Subject File Series

Extent: 9 boxes (Box VP034-042)

Dates: 1998-2012

Arrangement: The series is organized by subject

Scope and content:

Textual files originally collected at Vivienne Poy's Office on different subjects, which document Poy's activities and personal research in women studies, Chinese Canadian history, ethnicity Canada and multiculturalism. It includes research materials and activity records related to Vivienne Poy's signature political contribution, such as amendment of National Anthem and Asian Heritage Month. The files are chiefly word-processed, photocopy, computer printout, and press clipping. Photocopy of some historical records and Acts date back to 1878-1938. The collection also includes media reports on Vivienne Poy.
